1 Introduction

1.1 Purpose

The Wangaratta Football and Netball Club (referred to here as WFNC or the Club)

Code of Conduct seeks to promote and strengthen the good reputation of our Club and players by establishing standards of performance and behaviour for footballers, netballers, Club officials, parents and spectators. In addition, it seeks to deter conduct which could have an adverse effect on the standing and reputation of the game and all participants.

This code is also intended to clarify the duties and obligations of players and other members to the Club.

1.2 Discipline (honour the name)

A breach of this code by a WFNC player, Club official, parent or spectator, may give rise to actions against the person or persons involve under or pursuant to any one or more of the following:

1. Civil and/or criminal laws.
2. VCFL rules.
3. O&MFNL rules.
4. WFNC rules.
5. WFNC constitution
6. Playing contract.

2 General Responsibilities (All members, Parents and Supporters)

2.1 Behaviour

Players, Club officials, parents, supporters and spectators must at all times behave in a sportsmanlike manner and uphold the highest standards of professional conduct so as not to compromise the integrity and dignity of the WFNC and its players.

Players, Club officials or spectators must not wilfully engage or participate in any activity which may cause or aggravate any injury or illness and which prevents players from playing Football/Netball to the best of their ability.

2.2 Property

Players, Club officials and spectators must show due regard for the property and facilities of the WFNC and that of other providers which may utilised during any authorised activities in which the player or member is engaged.

Where a player, Club officials or spectators breaches this provision, they shall pay the relevant person or body an amount equivalent to the cost of repairing or replacing the damaged property and/or facility.

2.3 Vilification

Players, Club officials and spectators must not vilify other players, umpires or spectators on the basis of their race, religion, colour, sex, sexual orientation or other related characteristics.

2.4 Social Media/Cyber Bullying

The WFNC fully supports the VCFL policy against Cyber Bullying and breaches will be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with section 1.2

“Cyberbullying is a way of delivering covert psychological bullying. It uses information and communication technologies to support deliberate, repeated and hostile behaviour, by an individual or group that is intended to harm others.” (Belsey 2007)

Cyberbullying includes, but is not limited to, the following misuses of technology: harassing, teasing, intimidating, racially vilifying or threatening another person by sending or posting inappropriate and hurtful e-mail messages, instant messages, text messages, phone messages, digital pictures or images, or Web site postings (including social network sites eg Facebook or blogs) and the sending, receiving and/or possession of naked or sexually explicit images of a person. Club members must also be aware that postings from their individual accounts, whether done by themselves or another person will remain the responsibility of the account owner.

For the full policy see WorkSafe Victorian Country Football League Cybersafety Policy.

3 Club Officials Responsibilities

Club officials are any person representing the Club in an official capacity.

First and foremost it is the responsibility of all Club officials to uphold the Club code of conduct and challenge anyone that is not abiding by it.

Club officials will only use Club facilities, resources and funds for purposes that are in line with a direct Club interest unless otherwise approved by the board.

Club trainers are dedicated to the welfare of players, they are accredited first aiders and sports trainers and will be the first responders to any medical related incident during training or games. Club officials including coaches are expected to allow trainers to fulfil their duties unhindered.

Any Club official interacting with junior players is required to have a working with children's permit.

Club officials will be held to account by way of the WFNC constitution and this code of conduct.

The Club through its officials will provide;

- A safe environment for players to train, develop and play.
- A professionally structured training and game program.
- Pathways to further development and elite programs.
- Provide support and guidance for players with on field and off field issues whatever they may be.
- Access to specialist coaching sessions.
- Be clear, honest and open in there communications.

4 Parents and Supporters Responsibilities

The Club encourages parents, families and supporters to be active participants in the day to day workings of the Club if you would like to help out please contact operations or team managers. There will be occasions where parents of junior Club team members will be required perform rostered tasks such as in the canteen.

Parents and supporters are required to respect coaches and team manager's decisions regarding training and game day decisions. We are committed to an open communication policy. Negative and undermining behaviour will not be tolerated.

Club trainers are dedicated to the welfare of players, they are accredited first aiders and sports trainers and will be the first responders to any medical related incident during training or games. Parents and spectators are expected to allow trainers to fulfil their duties unhindered. Players or parents of junior players may be approached and given recommendations for further treatment of injuries such as concussion. The Club expects that parents will heed any such recommendation from our club trainers.

Concerns and issues may be respectfully taken up with the coaching staff or team manager in the first instance, if issues are not resolved then you may refer to the Football or Netball Operations Manager who may intern refer matters to the board see section 8.0.

5 Football/Netball Player Responsibilities

Football and Netball players when registered to play are automatically granted membership of the WFNC, thus it is as much your Club as any other member. Your Club relies on its members to run and support the Club and in return the Club provides the best environment and support for players to develop and play at an elite regional level. The Club relies heavily on its players to aid in the day to day running of the Club and simply cannot function without that support. The more we put in the more we get back.

5.1 General

Senior players are encouraged to mentor and support our junior players to ensure they have the best opportunity to transition into the senior ranks.

Club facilities: the state of the Club/change rooms including cleanliness is the responsibility of all members. As the change rooms are primarily used by players it will be your responsibility to ensure they are clean after training and games.

Access to the change rooms and the gym outside of normal training and game days is limited to players and other club members only.

There will be occasions when the support of sponsors at events or Club functions will be mandatory to attend.

Players will only use Club facilities, resources and funds for purposes that are in line with a direct Club interest unless otherwise approved by the board.

5.2 Training/Pre Season

Other than training sessions Preseason may include camps and Club functions

Appearance: Club training apparel must be worn at training, show that we are unified (one team) particularly in the public eye.

Attendance: Your coach or team manager must be advised if you are to be absent from training. Training is not optional.

Punctuality: It is your responsibility to be at training and ready to begin at the time designated by your coach. If you are going to be late then you must notify you coach before the start of training.

Effort: Your training performance/effort will translate to your game day performance. Our Club goal is to complete at an elite level at all times, therefore it is incumbent on all players to aspire to the same goal.

Injured Players: Players are required at training even when injured. Being injured does not necessarily preclude a player from some participation at training. If you must be absent then contact your coach and advise them as why.

5.3 Game Day

Appearance: When not wearing on field uniform, Club apparel must be worn at games, WFNC shirt/hoody/jacket, black bottoms and black shoes whether you are playing that day or not.

Punctuality: It is your responsibility to be at the ground on time.

Seniors and reserves footballers will be at the ground no later than ¼ time of the previous match. All other grades will be at the ground one hour before a games scheduled start time. If you are going to be late then you must notify you coach as soon as practical.

Club: Support other Club teams and the Club. You will be required to assist in the running of fixtures by way of a roster. It is your responsibility to find a replacement if you unable to fulfil your duties. Duties may include: Canteen, cleaning the rooms/grounds, running water, selling raffle tickets, or working the bar and kitchen.

Post-game: All players must report any injuries to a Club trainer for treatment and/or referral.

Actively seek feedback from your coach regarding your performance.

Players must, during matches and Club training sessions, behave in the same manner as required in Clause 2.1 of this Code.

Findings by the Tribunal of misconduct against a player will be dealt with in accordance with VCFL rules.

5.4 Substance abuse

Players must refrain from the taking of illicit and/or performance-enhancing substances, behaviour of this type is illegal and the club has a policy of zero tolerance in this regard. Any player found to be in breach of this policy will be deregistered.

5.5 Alcohol

The Club will not tolerate under age or irresponsible consumption of alcohol.

On game days all players are expected to refrain from consuming alcohol until all games are completed.

Thirds Players who are over 18 are not permitted to consume alcohol at the ground on match days, they may however drink responsibly at Club functions.

6 Public and Related Responsibilities

6.1 Public conduct

Members and Players must, at all times and while in public, behave in a manner which upholds and promotes the highest standards of integrity and dignity. Players must not behave in any way so as to bring the game or the Club into disrepute.

Public behaviour includes, without limitation, behaviour during travel to or from matches, participation in authorised matches, Club excursions, functions and promotional events (see Clause 6.4).

6.2 Public comment

Members and Players must not make adverse public comments concerning umpires or decisions made by umpires during matches.

6.3 Media comment

Members and Players must refer any media related questions to their coach and or Club president.

6.4 Functions and Events

Players must (unless granted express permission otherwise) attend, and attend punctually, nominated Club functions and events. Nominated functions will be communicated to players by Club officials during the course of the season.
